

Richard Ingrao Bio

Mr. Richard Ingrao is well-known and respected in the field of social monitoring and auditing. As the founder and current partner in Accordia Global Compliance Group, he has worked as consultant, monitor and trainer to business clients for various social standards. He has additionally mentored and trained professional assessors and monitors working under his direction. He has led or participated in over 300 code assessments, training sessions and consulting engagements in the major sourcing countries within Asia and throughout the Americas over the past five years. Mr. Ingrao holds a Senior Lead Auditor designation for SA8000 and is accredited under numerous other standards and codes.

Accordia is a US-based company that is accredited by the FLA as an Independent External Monitor. US brands, including those participating and licensee members of the FLA have approved Accordia as a monitoring organization to assess compliance to their own company's social standards and code of conduct provisions.

Richard is a graduate of the State University of New York at Fredonia and has established his business and his home in Williamsville, New York.